will be working every day, and thus will be a great force of opposition, till we fight on, and in the very midst of all we have our Saviour very near, and we mean to go on and sow seed with patience though there are at many wayside and stony ground, and some that hear the word, and make it into the rich soil, but the seed and thorns are there also, and when the world is shaken by the coming of this world. Yet bless the door there are some that receive the word with gladness, and the seed falls good ground, and brings forth the fruit, Hallelujah! We are believing

HORNHILL.—Mont. Rowe. Thursday as we told the plain and simple him, the Spirit of God took hold of her woman, and she went in her to make a child, the devil tried hard to her believe she was too wicked for to save, but she proved the devil a liar for the very moment she was willing to lay her sins on Jesus he released them from her so far as the east is west, and she went away happy, she was the first to testify for Jesus.

He blotted them out of remembrance to remember no more against them. 25

Spirit was in the meeting in convicting power, and two dear souls fell at the Saviour's bleeding feet and did not turn them away, but forgave them and made them rejoice in his making four souls born into the world for the week. To God be all ALKERTON.—Capt. Carrey. Jesus draws the crowd. We have provoked although the enemy rages a bit though some of his agents, yet God is and are winning to know the Master. On Saturday we had meetings all day, our souls were fed, while we spoke of the redeeming of Christ. In the evening it was ours as the Soldiers fired the gospel. Many deeply convicted. We are rising for victory; there are numbers
